DEAR COVENANT COMMUNITY,

When our family was looking for a high school, we wanted a place that offered both a Christian worldview and excellence in education. We also hoped for a well-rounded experience that included a variety of extracurricular opportunities. Covenant checked all those boxes—and from the beginning, it felt like the right fit.

After our daughter began her freshman year at Covenant, I found Shield Club. I joined in order to serve and become connected to the Covenant community. Over time, I've come to see that the heart behind Shield Club is about so much more. It's about connecting and partnering with those who want to actively support the mission of CCHS through their time, talent, or treasure.

One of the things I care about deeply is making sure every student and family feels welcome and seen at Covenant. Part of the greatest commandment is to love your neighbor as yourself. If we can love students and families well for four years, I believe the Kingdom impact of their high school experience will carry on long after they graduate.

You don't have to do everything to be part of Shield Club. Depending on your season of life, there are so many meaningful ways to get involved.

Jennifer Huckaba: Shield Club Coordinator

No gift of resources—whether time, talent, or treasure—is too small. As a Shield Club Member, you could volunteer to sell t-shirts at an event, donate a crockpot of soup for a teacher appreciation lunch, or simply commit to praying for our staff and faculty. As a Shield Club Supporter, you can give monetarily to your favorite club or program, or the school as a whole. We truly have something for everyone.

Shield Club is for everyone. There's no pressure or sales pitch. You can choose what areas you want to hear about, and when opportunities arise, you'll get a message. If the timing works, jump in. If not, that's okay too. Our goal is to build a team that can contribute as they are able.

Being involved in Shield Club has connected me with students and families of all ages and interests. These relationships help us build a community that stays strong, even after graduation. My hope is that Covenant becomes a place that always feels like home. And Shield Club is one way we help make that happen.

With gratitude,

Jennifer Huckaba
